EVANSTON

NEIGHBORHOOD

Located just north of Chicago, Evanston has a beautiful natural setting on Lake Michigan and features expansive parks, historic architecture and the Northwestern University campus. Its 75,000 residents include an eclectic mix of students, young professionals, families and seniors. With bustling business districts, arts and culture and easy access to Chicago, Evanston offers the conveniences of city living in a suburban environment.

HOUSING

Homes in Evanston range from contemporary new-construction high rises to well-maintained single-family homes and townhomes to historic lakefront mansions. The town is comprised of a number of distinct neighborhoods – many within walking distances of Evanston's thriving commercial areas. Home prices range from under $100,000 to well over $1 million.

LIFESTYLE

Evanston has a variety of amenities to enjoy year-round. Its downtown adjoins Northwestern University and includes hundreds of businesses from boutiques, bookstores and galleries to theaters and restaurants. Smaller shopping districts contain additional options. Outdoor recreation includes beaches, parks, jogging trails and bicycle paths. Meanwhile Northwestern University offers residents access to a full slate of Big Ten sports as well as cultural events and academic pursuits.

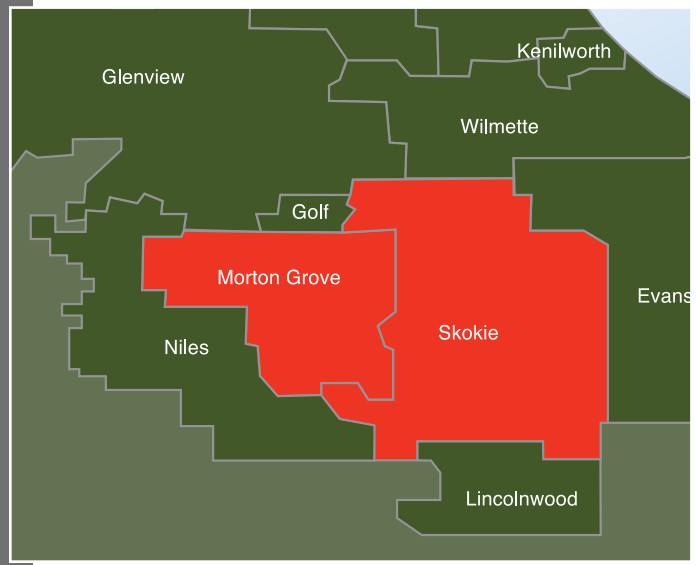
SKOKIE/MORTON GROVE

NEIGHBORHOOD

Located on the northwest border of the city, Skokie and Morton Grove are original Chicago suburbs that continue to thrive. Skokie was named one of the fastest-growing suburbs in the U.S by Money magazine, while Family Circle recently proclaimed Morton Grove one of the nation's 10 best towns for families. With beautiful parks and forest preserves, award-winning schools and proximity to Chicago, these neighboring towns combine big-city opportunities with suburban charm.

HOUSING

Skokie and Morton Grove offer a wide variety of housing options to appeal to every lifestyle. Quiet, tree-lined streets feature affordable colonials, ranches and Chicago-style bungalows as well as upscale new-construction. Condominium buyers will also find a wealth of options, including a number of large new-construction developments with luxurious amenities.



LIFESTYLE

Skokie and Morton Grove's commercial centers, recreational facilities and shopping rival any Chicago suburb. Old Orchard Shopping Center in Skokie is a favorite upscale shopping destination for North Shore residents. Premier cultural and educational amenities include The North Shore Center for the Performing Arts, Northlight Theatre and Illinois Holocaust Museum. The award-winning Skokie Park District maintains 240 acres of parkland, while 20 percent of land in Morton Grove is dedicated to open space.

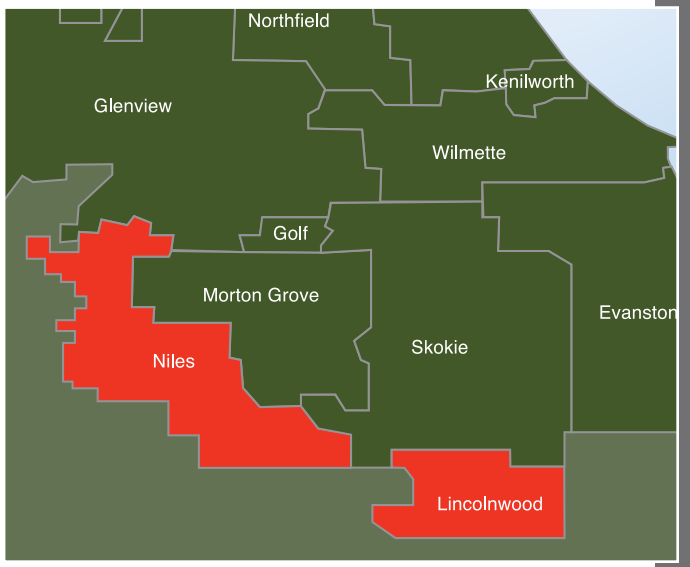
NILES/LINCOLNWOOD

NEIGHBORHOOD

Located just 15 minutes from the hustle of downtown Chicago, Niles and Lincolnwood offer quiet residential neighborhoods on narrow streets shaded by towering trees. An abundance of shopping choices await residents at Lincolnwood Town Center and Golf Mill Center, while dozens of independent merchants greet customers by name. The close-knit sense of community is enhanced by Niles' Sister City program that promotes international student and cultural exchanges.

HOUSING

Homes in Niles and Lincolnwood vary in style and price making the area a practical and popular choice for a variety of residents. Condominiums are available in park-like settings, while well-maintained bungalows offer affordable single-family living. There are also a number of custom new-construction homes as well as stately Georgians on larger lots. Niles is also known for its low property taxes.



LIFESTYLE

Residents enjoy an abundance of local amenities. Thriving neighborhood businesses as well as regional malls offer a wide range of choices for shopping and dining. Music venues range from classical concerts performed by the Lincolnwood Chamber Orchestra to summertime open-air concerts and festivals. Parks, pools, tennis courts and baseball diamonds are plentiful, and county forest preserves offering bicycle trails and golf are just minutes away.

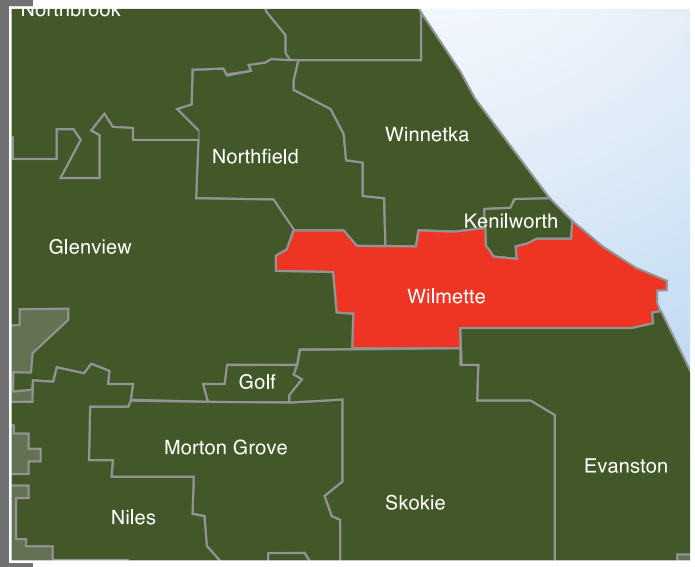
WILMETTE

NEIGHBORHOOD

Located just 14 miles north of downtown Chicago, Wilmette is one of the original North Shore communities. It has been ranked by BusinessWeek, as one of the best places in the U.S. to raise children and today is home to nearly 28,000 residents. Wilmette boasts excellent elementary schools, the highly acclaimed New Trier High School and a wealth of recreational and cultural attractions.

HOUSING

Wilmette offers homes in a diverse range of prices and styles. Quintessential Cape Cod, Victorian and Colonial homes line the village's historic streets, many of which are paved with clay-fired bricks from the 1800s. In addition to single-family homes, there are beachfront condominiums and more affordable townhomes. New construction highlights growth, while well kept older homes maintain Wilmette's character and preserve the community's enduring architectural history.



LIFESTYLE

Wilmette's proximity to the city makes commuting from Wilmette easy via Metra and I-94. The awe-inspiring Baha'i Temple is a highly visible landmark along Sheridan Road, while the historic downtown district and Plaza Del Lago provide excellent shopping. A wealth of recreational activities can be found throughout the village including at Gillson Park and beach, Wilmette Harbor and the Centennial Recreation Complex which includes swimming, tennis and ice-skating.

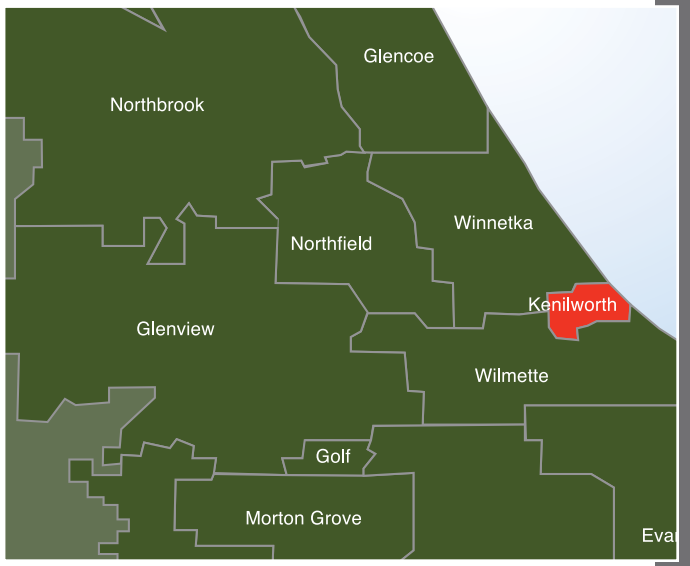
KENILWORTH

NEIGHBORHOOD

Founded in 1889 by Joseph Sears, Kenilworth was recently identified as one of America's most affluent zip codes by Forbes.com. The village is a haven for buyers seeking privacy yet proximity to the city. Large businesses are notably absent, and the community enjoys a wealth of mature trees and cozy parks. Its top-rated school district consists of the Joseph Sears School and New Trier High School, which consistently ranks among the best high schools in the U.S. There are also a variety of local private schools.

HOUSING

With only 850 homes in a .6 mile radius, Kenilworth is the smallest community on the North Shore. Homes range in price from $600,000 to over $6 million. Centered around the town assembly hall, the Kenilworth Club, pristine lakefront mansions blend with comfortable Prairie -style homes built by architect and original resident George Maher. Spectacular new construction is available, while strict architectural standards maintain a tradition of elegance.



LIFESTYLE

In addition to a beautiful public beach, Kenilworth enjoys flowing fountains, lacrosse and baseball fields, parks, gardens and a Historical Society that enthusiastically preserves the community's history. Residents dine out in nearby villages, or walk to the Kenilworth Metra Station for a short train ride into the city. Annual traditions such as a Memorial Day parade preserve Kenilworth's All-American feel.

WINNETKA

NEIGHBORHOOD

Situated 18 miles north of downtown Chicago, Winnetka offers a diverse range of homes, fantastic recreational options, beautiful public beaches and a picturesque downtown with dozens of venues for dining and shopping. The public school district consists of three elementary schools, two middle schools and New Trier High School, which consistently ranks among the best in the country. There are also a number of prestigious private schools within the community.

HOUSING

Winnetka is architecturally diverse and features homes designed by distinguished architects including George Maher, Howard Van Doren Shaw and David Adler. Colonials, Tudors and Victorians are interspersed with contemporary and new-construction homes on graceful tree-lined streets. From multi-million dollar lakefront mansions to condominiums, townhomes and in-town cottages, there is something for everyone in this charming village.

LIFESTYLE

Residents enjoy convenient commuting options and public amenities that include beautiful beaches, golf courses, a world-class tennis facility, indoor ice arena and numerous parks. NORTHFIELD

NEIGHBORHOOD

Northfield, a small community of just 5,500 residents, offers homeowners unusually large lot sizes, access to top-rated schools and proximity to numerous corporate headquarters. The town is ideally located near commuter trains, shopping, Interstates 94 and 294 and O'Hare International Airport. The village is served by nationally recognized New Trier High School, while the local grammar and middle schools are also highly regarded.

HOUSING

Northfield is known for its distinctly residential character defined by sprawling ranch homes and European-inspired mansions on oversized lots. Spacious yards and meticulously maintained gardens are a highly coveted North Shore amenity. Those seeking maintenance-free living will find condominiums in quiet locales. The village is experiencing growth through new construction, but its tranquil and welcoming atmosphere remains.

LIFESTYLE

Northfield offers convenient access to Chicago while maintaining its rural charm. Excellent schools, shopping and dining options, weekend farmers' markets, verdant forest preserves, bicycle paths, jogging and hiking trails, and bridle paths are just a few of the reasons to call Northfield home.

GLENCOE

NEIGHBORHOOD

Glencoe offers an idyllic lakefront setting with a range of home styles located on quiet tree-lined streets. The village is home to the world-renowned Chicago Botanic Gardens. Vast stretches of ravines, abundant parks, a charming downtown district and superb schools including New Trier High School make it one of Chicago's most sought after suburbs.

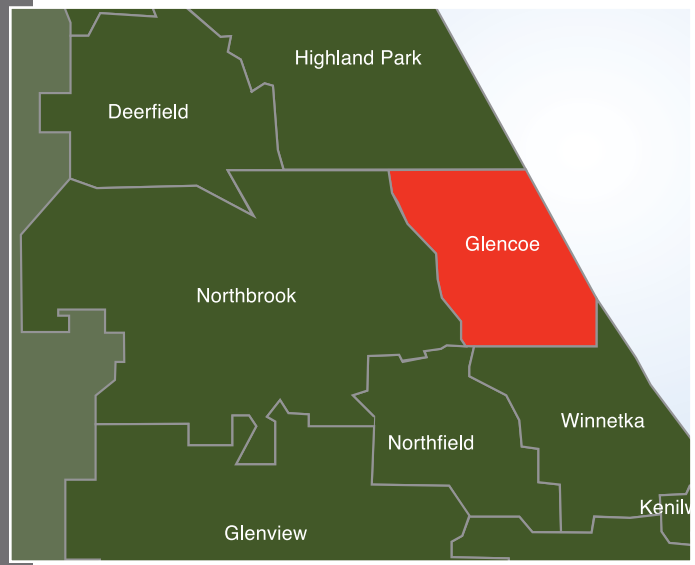
HOUSING

Glencoe is comprised of both traditional and contemporary homes in a range of prices. There are beachfront mansions, architecturally significant mid-century modern homes, new-construction with every amenity, and affordably-priced townhomes and condominiums. Many neighborhoods are located within walking distance of the village's downtown.



LIFESTYLE

Popular recreational options include Glencoe Beach, the Cook County Forest Preserve and Glencoe Golf Course. The Chicago Botanic Garden is a year-round attraction with breathtaking gardens, special events and horticulture classes. Situated just three blocks from the beach, the downtown is filled with upscale boutiques. The town also features the acclaimed Writers Theater, a popular public library and the Takiff Community Center, which offers programs for all ages.

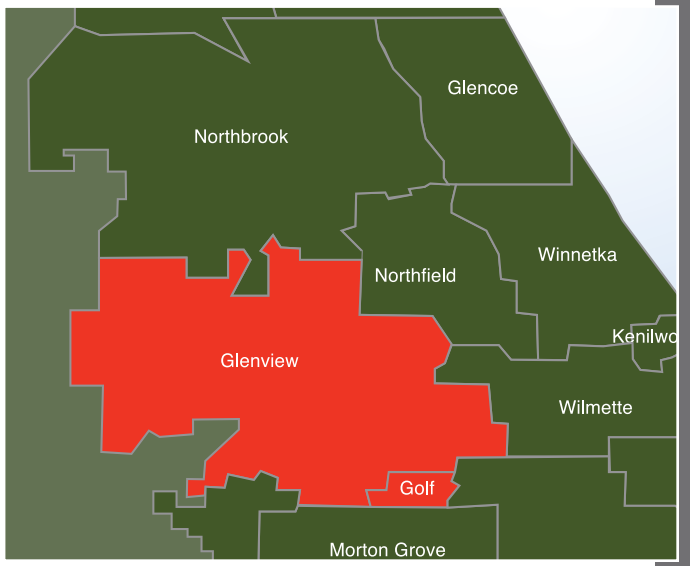
GLENVIEW

NEIGHBORHOOD

Glenview and Golf are neighboring towns that offer a wealth of amenities and a variety of housing choices for area residents. Glenview is a popular destination for shopping and dining that has expanded rapidly with the development of The Glen, a large mixed-use development on the site of the former Glenview Naval Air Station. Meanwhile the eponymous town of Golf has just 500 residents in an area of .4 square miles. The communities share a variety of highly regarded elementary, middle and high schools.

HOUSING

Glenview accommodates a population of almost 46,000 residents with housing that ranges from affordable townhomes and condominiums to million-dollar custom homes with every amenity. Surrounded by the most extensive forest preserves in Cook County, Golf features elegant single-family homes on expansive lots.



LIFESTYLE

In addition to downtown Glenview, residents enjoy The Glen, a 1,000-acre development that offers homes, offices, shopping, a movie complex, central park, two golf courses, a children's museum and a commuter train station. The nearby Grove is a national landmark that offers an interpretive center, historic buildings and nature trails.

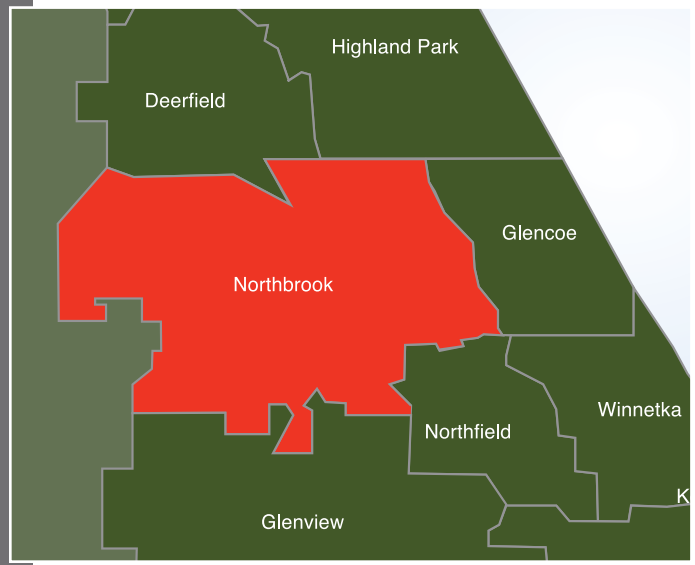
NORTHBROOK

NEIGHBORHOOD

Though it has served as the backdrop for a number of feature films including "Ferris Bueller's Day Off", many consider Northbrook to be the North Shore's best-kept secret. It is one of the largest communities on the North Shore but maintains a small-town feel. Beautiful parks and residential areas are interspersed with local business districts and corporate headquarters. Residents enjoy a convenient commute to downtown Chicago and O'Hare International Airport. Five highly rated public school districts serve the community.

HOUSING

Northbrook has some of the most diverse housing options on the North Shore. A variety of neighborhoods offer single-family homes in architectural styles ranging from mid-century ranch to contemporary, while in-town options include recently constructed townhomes and condominiums in every price range.



LIFESTYLE

Two distinct pursuits contribute to the Northbrook lifestyle: shopping and recreation. Northbrook is home to Northbrook Court, a large regional mall that includes high-end retailers, a movie theater and many dining options. The town also has an outstanding park district with top-notch facilities and year-round programs for just about every sport from baseball to golf to cycling. Downtown Northbrook is home to restaurants, shops and the annual Northbrook Days festival.

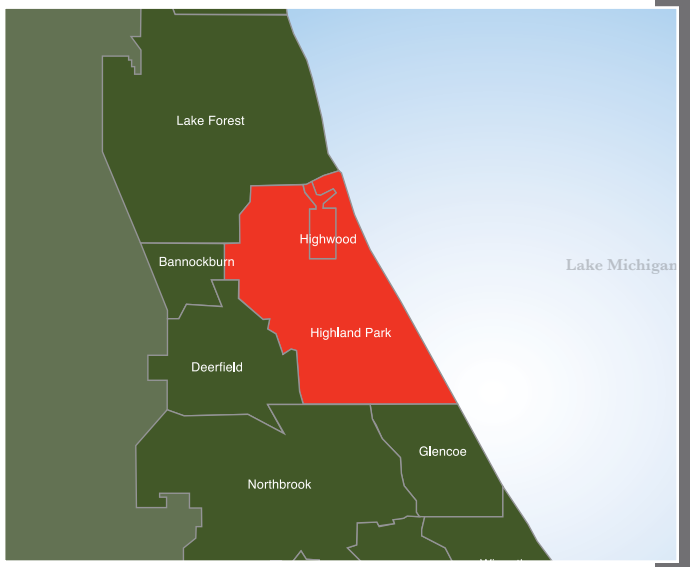
HIGHLAND PARK/HIGHWOOD

NEIGHBORHOOD

Highland Park and Highwood are neighboring communities that have managed to successfully balance preservation with forward-thinking growth. The towns support a diverse population with a full spectrum of housing options, vibrant business districts and world-class recreational and cultural amenities including Ravinia Festival – the North Shore's one-of-a-kind outdoor concert venue.

HOUSING

High-end homes in Highland Park range from custom lakefront mansions to multi-million dollar contemporary estates. Mid-century moderns and in-town bungalows are plentiful at more modest price points. A number of new luxury condominium developments offer maintenance-free living within walking distance of downtown and commuter train stations. Highland Park also created the first community land trust in Illinois to develop and preserve high-quality affordable housing for residents.



LIFESTYLE

Highland Park shines in the summer, when Ravinia Festival welcomes the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and many international recording artists. The performances and outdoor ambiance attract residents and visitors alike. Unparalleled shopping and dining is available in downtown Highland Park, while Highwood is known for its award-winning restaurants and nightlife.

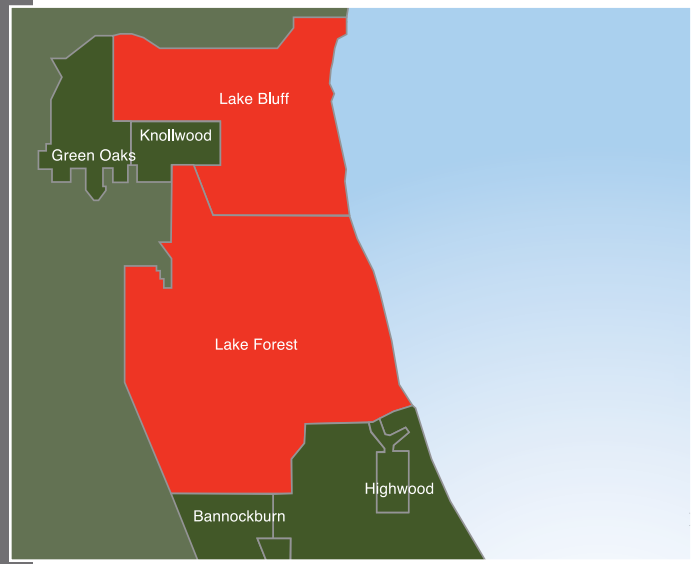
LAKE FOREST/LAKE BLUFF

NEIGHBORHOOD

Located 30 miles north of Chicago, Lake Forest and Lake Bluff feature some of the finest estates on the North Shore. Rich in history, the towns are known for their lakefront setting, natural beauty and wide-open spaces. They offer quiet tree-lined streets, pristine beaches, quaint downtown districts and top-notch public and private schools ranging from kindergarten to post-graduate studies.

HOUSING

Lake Forest and Lake Bluff offer homeowners true luxury in a resort-style setting. Historic estates built by legendary architects Howard Van Doren Shaw, David Adler and Henry Ives Cobb are interspersed among elegant homes lining the lakefront and towns. Together, the two communities offer properties ranging from multi-million dollar mansions to new-construction condominiums and townhomes.



LIFESTYLE

Towering trees, picturesque street plans and bluffs overlooking the lake contribute to these towns' unique beauty. Market Square is the heart of Lake Forest, offering fantastic shops and restaurants. Downtown Lake Bluff offers similar amenities, and is recognized as a national historic district. Cultural and recreational opportunities in Lake Forest can be found at the Gorton Center and Lake Forest Recreation Center, as well as at beautiful beaches, golf courses, and jogging and bicycling trails.

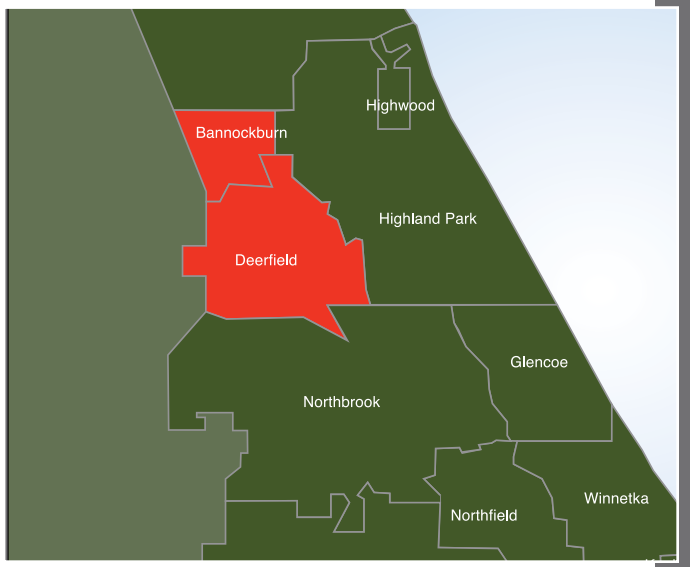
BANNOCKBURN/DEERFIELD

NEIGHBORHOOD

Located approximately 30 miles from Chicago, Deerfield, Bannockburn and Riverwoods are three neighboring communities that offer residents tranquil neighborhoods, fine schools and abundant open spaces. Easy access to I-294 puts residents within easy reach of downtown Chicago, O'Hare and numerous corporate headquarters. Deerfield's new town center and a number of recreational options provide homeowners with urban convenience and all the amenities of fine suburban living.

HOUSING

Housing options in Deerfield, Riverwoods and Bannockburn range from urban to bucolic. Deerfield offers condominiums, townhomes and single-family homes in a wide range of architectural styles and prices. The village includes both walk-to-town locations and more traditional suburban subdivisions. Meanwhile, Riverwoods and Bannockburn are known for large homes on expansive lots – many of which are set back from main roads and surrounded by mature trees.



LIFESTYLE

With miles of jogging and cycling paths, award-winning golf courses and vast forest preserves, including Ryerson Woods, many of the recreational activities in Deerfield, Riverwoods and Bannockburn focus on the outdoors. But Deerfield also has a number of public and private recreational facilities and dining and shopping venues that draw residents from all over the North Shore.
