

Home > Luxury Home of the Week

CRAIN'S CRAIN'S CONTENT STUDIO LUXURY HOME OF THE WEEK Advertisement

SPONSORED BY MICHAEL SAUNDERS & COMPANY

May 20, 2022 12:00 AM

Chateau Grande Cour

TWEET SHARE LinkedIn SHARE EMAIL

REPRINTS PRINT

Next

1/12

Courtesy of Michael Saunders & Company. Photographer – Denis Lauzon of SRQ Photo Video

Aerial photo captures the overall estate with waterway and city views

Learn more details about this property here

This waterfront estate and yachtsman's dream come true, bestow a commanding presence in Harbor Acres, the #1 most sought-after neighborhood in Sarasota. Poised behind palace-inspired gates, the paved drive is flanked by seemingly endless landscaping that leads to a magnificent 12,000 +/- sq. ft. home of inspired traditional architecture. Exquisite details are appreciated in every direction, from the thoughtfully reimagined landscaping featuring an assortment of trees and perennials to the multi-purposeful spaces inside and out to the intricate artistry of wood millwork, carved stone, and breathtaking chandeliers. Mahogany doors open to the grand foyer flanked by a formal dining room and executive office before presenting an inviting formal living room beyond a stunning staircase.

Realtors:
Linda Driggs | 941.374.2920
Kim Ogilvie | 941.376.1717

Michael Saunders & Company LICENSED REAL ESTATE BROKER

Learn more details about this property here

| Most Popular | |
|--------------|---|
| 1 | Texas guy invokes Chicago's gun violence problem after school shooting |
| 2 | Law firm that advised Lightfoot on casino process also represented the winning bidder |
| 3 | A Kenilworth mansion with an original speakeasy |
| 4 | Brookfield-backed firm buys River North landmark |
| 5 | Morton Arboretum has had its eye on this house for two decades |

