

Ten Things Sellers Will Miss Most

Privacy of Living on the Ravine - Peaceful seclusion with a quiet backdrop of trees that creates a private sanctuary in the city.

Bespoke Kitchen with Miele Appliances - Custom-designed kitchen blending functionality with style, making dinner parties feel easy.

Balcony Floating Among the Tree Canopy - An immersive connection to nature and the perfect spot for morning coffee or summer dinners.

Living Room with Soaring Ceilings & Large Windows - Abundant natural light creates a dramatic, warm and welcoming atmosphere.

Wide-Plank White Oak Flooring – They're so beautiful and add an elegance and warmth to the home. They're also durable and easy to maintain.

European Tilt & Turn Aluminum Windows - Thoughtfully designed windows offering framed views and a perfect balance of function and craftsmanship.

Sunrises and Moonrises Over the Lake - From golden sunrises to moonlit evenings, the lake's ever-changing views offer daily moments of serenity.

Driving Home to a Full View of Mount Rainier - Cresting the hill to see Mount Rainier is a daily reminder of the Pacific Northwest's natural beauty.

Walks to the Beach, Leschi Market & the Valley of the Gnomes

Footbridge - Weekend strolls to Leschi Market, the beach, or the whimsical Valley of the Gnomes bridge made the neighborhood endlessly charming.

Our Madrona Drive Neighbors & Friends - We'll miss our neighbors whose friendship and trust made this community warm and welcoming.