

Explore Life in Lake Forest Park

Peaceful. Connected. Community-Focused.

Explore Lake Forest Park Living — LFP, as the locals call it, is loved for its peaceful setting, mature trees, and strong sense of community, all while offering convenient access to Seattle and the Eastside. Tucked along the northwest shore of Lake Washington, the area is known for the Burke-Gilman Trail, nearby parks and green spaces, Town Center conveniences, Third Place Commons, Lake Forest Park Farmers Market and its stellar schools. LFP blends nature and neighborhood connection with everyday ease.

Highlights

- Peaceful Residential Setting – Tree-lined streets, larger lots and quiet neighborhood feel
- Strong Sense of Community – Warm, connected vibe with beloved local gathering places
- Outdoor Lifestyle – From the Burke-Gilman Trail to parks and Lake Washington recreation
- Everyday Convenience – Shopping, dining, groceries, and many services within LFP
- Easy Access to Seattle & the Eastside – A practical location for commuting

Top Local Restaurants & Cafés

- Third Place Commons – Local favorite bookstore with food court and community hub
- Honey Bear Bakery – Beloved neighborhood bakery known for pastries and coffee
- Brileys BBQ & Grill – Casual local spot with barbecue and comfort food
- Vulpine Taproom – Popular local gathering spot for drinks and a relaxed neighborly vibe
- The Local 104 – Known for their Neo-Neapolitan pizza and local beer selection
- Starbucks at Town Center – Convenient and friendly coffee stop and local hangout

Culture & Places to Explore

- Third Place Commons – Much-loved gathering place for events, performances, and markets
- Lake Forest Park Farmers Market – Seasonal market with produce and local vendors
- Town Center at Lake Forest Park – A central hub for errands, dining and everyday amenities
- Local Community Events – Seasonal celebrations gatherings throughout the year

Nearby Parks

- Grace Cole Nature Park – Quiet trails and lush natural beauty
- Horizon View Park – Open green space with play areas, tennis court and walking trails
- Blue Heron Park – Hidden gem with natural surroundings and seasonal salmon viewing
- Lyon Creek Waterfront Preserve – Scenic waterfront access and peaceful walking paths

Nearby Grocery Stores

- Safeway – Full-service grocery store with wide selection of everyday essentials
- Thriftway – Locally owned and operated Ballinger Village Market