

Ten Things Seller Will Miss Most

2000 1st Ave, #803 | Downtown

Location: Living in the vibrant heart of Seattle, where the city's energy is right outside my door.

Views: My lovely view of the waterfront! and in the winter, glimpses of Mount Rainier and the stadiums.

Ferry traffic: Watching the ferries come and go—a peaceful reminder of life by the beautiful Puget Sound.

Location: Being just one block from the new Waterfront Park and Steinbrueck Park—so many lovely outdoor areas to enjoy nearby.

Neighborhood: Strolling to Post Alley and Pike Place Market for fresh flowers, local produce and endless people-watching.

Nearby Breweries: Having six fantastic breweries within walking distance: Reuben's Brews, Old Stove Brewery, Pike Brewing, Cloudburst Brewing, Here Today Brewery & Kitchen (by the Sculpture Park) and Kells.

Public Transportation: Being just two blocks or less from all the Seattle Metro bus lines.

Light Rail: Only four blocks from Westlake Light Rail Station, connecting me easily to the airport and many other fabulous destinations.

Concierge: 24-Hour concierge team at One Pacific Tower—always friendly, helpful and professional.

Large Balcony: Perfect for relaxing outside and soaking in the sunshine. The landscaped common deck visible from my balcony provides extra privacy from the street.
