Designed by local acclaimed architect Olof Dahlstrand, this architectural gem blends timeless design with the tranquility of its five-acre Carmel setting. Crafted in redwood and teak, the 5,777± sq. ft. residence frames sweeping views of Monterey Bay and the surrounding forest through walls of glass and expansive decks. Inside, warm textures and fine materials define every space, including five sculptural concrete fireplaces and custom built-ins throughout. Perfect for entertaining, the home features multiple living areas, including a library and family room, and two full kitchens—one with a commercial-grade Vulcan range and dual Traulsen refrigerators. Four ensuite bedrooms each open to private patios, while the primary suite offers its own fireplace and kitchenette. Additional amenities include a sauna, two laundry rooms, an artist studio with water, and a detached four-car garage. Centrally located within a few minutes' drive into downtown Carmel, Monterey, and all the incredible amenities the Peninsula has to offer, this rare architectural retreat is a place where design, nature, and light exist in perfect harmony.
