Conveniently located just up the hill from restaurants, shopping, and Folktales Winery, this amazing one-of-a-kind home sits in its own private forest. The ~1,800 sf, 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom house is perched perfectly in the oak canopy and enjoys views across Carmel Valley to the Santa Lucia mountains. Lovingly built in 1973, the 20-sided, circular house has an effortless flow from room to room. The stately stone fireplace provides a warming touch to the primary living areas and the expansive 360-degree deck makes for abundant outdoor living space that takes full advantage of the Carmel Valley sunshine and treetop views. This lovely home exudes character and tranquility and is just a short drive to all the wonderful amenities surrounding the Monterey Peninsula.
