Perched on the tip of Carmel Point towards the end of highly coveted Scenic Road, this beautiful home enjoys jaw-dropping, unobstructed views of Point Lobos and the grand Pacific beyond. The open floor plan gives you a front-row view of nature at its best with birds soaring and sea otters frolicking. With two private patios, one off the living room and one off the primary suite on the back of the home, you can enjoy the best of both worlds. Open beams, vaulted ceilings, stone floors, and granite countertops enhance the interior environment featuring 2 bedrooms and 2 full bathrooms. With world-class dining and shopping downtown and effortless walks to both spectacular white sand beaches, this is what living in Carmel is all about.
