Welcome...

Some homes are designed for function, others for style, this one was created for something even more timeless and personal. Thoughtfully elevated by designer Cecily Woolrich in 2011, every detail here reflects care, character, and a sense of story.

Set on just over two acres in Bearspaw, the home captivates from the moment you arrive. Sweeping architectural curves, river rock columns, and a commanding presence all hint at memories already made here, and those waiting to unfold around every corner.

Step Inside...

Step inside, where a circular skylight draws the eye upward, bathing the graceful rotunda in natural light and setting a tone of quiet luxury. The home's signature curves continue throughout, flowing through hallways, sculpted railings, and custom niches designed to showcase art and treasured pieces.

The main level unfolds into two beautifully connected living spaces, offering both elegance and flexibility. The larger room, currently styled as an expansive dining area that comfortably seats fourteen, is defined by soaring ceilings, a river rock fireplace, and walls of windows that invite the outdoors in. Just beyond, a more intimate sitting area creates a perfect setting for relaxed conversation or quiet moments.

Together, these spaces can easily transition to suit your lifestyle, whether entertaining on a grand scale or enjoying everyday living with refined comfort.

Throughout the home, reclaimed English barn board adds a sense of heritage and warmth, perfectly balanced by contemporary concrete countertops, sleek fixtures, and clean architectural lines. This thoughtful contrast carries into the kitchen, where aged wood cabinetry meets industrial-inspired surfaces, and a sunlit breakfast nook offers a welcoming place to begin the day.

Outside

Outside, the property unfolds with equal intention. In-ground pool, hot tub, and firepit create spaces for every season. Circling a stone platform at the heart of the grounds, a moat crossed by two wooden bridges - a meditative feature that speaks to the thoughtfulness woven throughout. For the right person, this won't simply be a beautiful property. It will feel like home.

BEARSPAW

ABOUT

Bearspaw is a rural community within Rocky View County consisting mostly of country residential acreages. Bearspaw is located northwest of the City of Calgary and east of the Town of Cochrane, on Highway 1A. The community of Bearpaw is one of the foremost places to live in Calgary with incredibly impressive homes on large private lots. Just on the outskirts of city limits, this community fully captures the natural beauty of the surrounding area landscape and features walking paths, ponds and lakes, wildlife and more.

HISTORY -

A Canadian Pacific Railway station was located and named Bearspaw in 1909. The Bearspaw name originates from Chief Bearspaw, who was head of the Stoney Nations. He was an influential negotiator and signatory for the 1877 Treaty No. 7. The Bearspaw area was settled mainly by dairy farmers. The first schoolhouse in the Bearspaw area had one classroom and was built in 1920 and it remained open until 1965. Bearspaw grew to include a mixture of farms and ranches, acreages and planned subdivisions.

LOCAL AMENITIES:

Local Shopping - Close to many amenities including the Bearspaw Golf & Country Club, the Bearspaw Lions Club Farmers Market, and the new Bearspaw Tim Hortons, and gas bar with a mini mart and Cold Stone Creamery. A short drive to local shopping in Rocky Ridge that includes the Co-op Grocery store and gas station, a bank, Subway, vets and more.
