Welcome to your own majestic retreat on the banks of the mighty Missouri River! This extraordinary estate offers unparalleled privacy, surrounded by the breathtaking natural beauty of Montana's landscapes. The centerpiece of this remarkable estate is a stunning castle-inspired residence, exuding timeless elegance and architectural grandeur. Features such as a cedar-lined sauna, expansive wine cellar, turret with reading room, two attached garages, multiple fireplaces, and the bold, castle-like courtyard complete with gargoyles, add to the allure of the property. The home is thoughtfully laid out with wings for the homeowners and guests. The main wing includes a bedroom, walk-in closet, ensuite bath, office, laundry room, and one of the attached two-car garages with direct entry. In the guest wing, you'll find three guest bedrooms, two baths, a 2-car garage, ample storage, and a guest laundry room. Aviation enthusiasts will be delighted by the inclusion of an airplane hangar and three private airstrips, providing convenient access for travel and exploration. The possibilities are endless for those with a passion for flight and adventure, whether urban or backcountry. For the avid boater or water enthusiast, a remarkable boathouse awaits, complete with a concrete ramp for effortless access to the river. This exceptional property offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of Montana's pristine wilderness, where every day brings new adventures and cherished memories.
