Extensive Knowledge - Every agent is hand selected to be part of the EQ Division. With not only experience in sales & marketing, agents in the division have experience & knowledge in a vast array of equestrian disciplines & amenities allowing you to live your best equestrian lifestyle.

Referrals & Partnerships - With referrals & partnerships throughout the industry, we can help make your move a seamless one. From shipping companies to veterinarians & farriers, we work with the best. Looking for a trainer or a new boarding facility in your new town? We can set up viewing and interviews. We are a one stop shop for your equestrian lifestyle.

The Compass Equestrian Division focuses on what the Equestrian lifestyle truly means.

Founded with the true equestrian in mind - we know that a real estate decision for an equestrian is more than just acreage properties, it's about the lifestyle. We specialize in not only Country & Horse Properties - but in access & ease for your equestrian goals.

Compass EQ features hand selected agents that have been vetted on not only their sales & marketing experience, but on their equestrian experience & knowledge. For acreage & horse properties, we understand the amenities you need. From stall size, arena footing, trail access & more, we consult with you on the things that matter most - discipline specific.

With other real estate purchases, we know your horses are still forefront. Knowing what your goals are, we can help refine your home search with access & ease of commute to boarding facilities, show grounds, & the best trainers. For all transactions we have partnerships that help make moving a breeze, we have you covered.
