An indescribable Rainforest Oasis located in the heart of the burgeoning tourism town of Bajos Del Toro lies Finca Dos Rios. An unparalleled offering of 63 hectares (156 acres) with 10 waterfalls, on two converging celestial rivers.

The clear blue mineral-rich water is highly coveted and sought after making Finca Dos Rios an exceptional property as it is bordered by the Gatas and Pilas Rivers featuring an incredible ratio of rainforest and pastureland, making it permit-ready for development. The spring-fed land is perfect for any number of tourism projects or a one of a kind private estate with the abundance of hydrological features that is rare even in Costa Rica. The existing trail systems access three of the 10 falls and serve as a roadmap for future trails and infrastructure. Careful master planning can make this a one-of-a-kind property.

WITH 10 WATERFALLS, ON TWO CONVERGING CELESTIAL RIVERS.

The surrounding mountain ranges and hills make for a stunning panoramic vista of unspoiled Costa Rican nature and will appeal to even the most discriminating of eco-tourist. Abundant wildlife inhabits the area which is located in the important biological corridor near Juan Castro Blanco National Wildlife Preserve.
