Extremely private and gated 2.31 acre one-of-a-kind estate originally built in 1937. Beautiful family floorplan with original character and details with wood paneled walls and crown mouldings. Originally built and owned by Norma Talmadge, silent movie actress and later owned by Cornel Wilde, Academy Award winner. Rebuilt and owned by George Mason, renowned financier, prolific writer, and one of the most notable Chairman and CEO's in Las Vegas history for MGM Mirage. A treasured family compund for Mr. and Mrs. Mason and their 6 daughters for 43 plus years consisting of a main house, guest house and staff quarters complete with a tennis court, endless grounds, pool and a glistening natural stream running from end-to-end transporting you to a country resort yet ideally located approximately 12 minutes to the Beverly Hills Hotel. A once in a lifetime opportunity to renovate and enjoy this family retreat for generations to come!
