Discover luxury and peace in this modern, newly-built home at the heart of West Hollywood. This architectural beauty boasts a flowing open floor plan that starts with a grand entry and extends through the main level, featuring oak wood floors. It includes an executive office, a cozy living room with a fireplace, and a chef's kitchen outfitted with Thermador appliances, a stone-topped center island, and large sliding glass doors that open to a well-kept backyard. This outdoor haven offers a kitchen, lounge area, and a breathtaking pool and spa, all shielded by numerous Ficus plants for utmost privacy. Wide floating stairs lead to the luxurious master bedroom, which comes with a high-end bathroom, his-and-hers closets, and a terrace overlooking the backyard. Beside the master suite, there are three spacious bedrooms, one with a stunning terrace facing the street. The lower level is an entertainer's dream, featuring a large room, gym, two en suites, a storage room, laundry room, and a glass-encased wine cellar. This gated property is just a short walk from some of LA' favorite dining and shopping spots, making it an ideal home.
