Golden Verdant

Gordon Kaufmann, 1926. One of the first properties ever built in Bel Air. Siena Way is a trophy English Tudor estate on the finest street in all of Bel Air. Over 1 acre of verdant grounds with the most spectacular specimen trees, sycamores and oaks. Hidden meadows and pocket gardens abound. The property has been thoughtfully restored and maintained in pristine condition. As with Gordon Kaufmann designs, Siena Way was built to entertain on a grand scale. The formal living room has soaring beamed ceilings, a grand stone fireplace and opens to an adjacent wood paneled library. Gorgeous formal dining room opens to an intimate viewing terrace. The gourmet kitchen is tiled from floor to ceiling in the fashion of original 1920's kitchens. Primary bedroom suite is the ultimate retreat with large bath and vast closets. 5 additional bedrooms are placed throughout. Complete 2 story guest house offers a living room, kitchen and 2 additional bedrooms. Magnificent pool is a world unto itself surround by lush landscape and lawns. Siena Way is the perfect combination of provenance, period architecture and location. Timeless classic available once in a generation.
