Beverly Hills architectural estate with panoramic ocean and city views. Located on its own promontory of nearly half an acre, the home is sited to take advantage of the sweeping views, with 42 custom Fleetwood doors and windows creating an interplay between the luxurious interiors and the breathtaking outdoor spaces.

Inside is a true smart-house with property-wide audio, video, and lighting systems, plus a hospital-grade HEPA and UV air purification system. A gourmet eat-in kitchen with marble counters, Thermador appliances, and a large island flows to the family room, and the kitchen, living room, and dining room all have floor-to-ceiling glass walls that open to the backyard, infinity pool, and outdoor dining area. The immense multi-room master suite features new hardwood floors, dual closets, an office, and gym with glass walls showcasing the view. All 4 bedrooms are en-suite with marble baths featuring Waterworks faucets and fittings. Intelligently designed for modern needs, the home is solar powered, has a 3-car garage with 2 electric car rapid chargers, a library with bar, den, family room, and drought-tolerant landscaping. This modern masterpiece offers sustainable living without compromising luxury and style in the most coveted zip code in Los Angeles.
