"The Solarium" a widely anticipated lower Doheny Estate masterpiece. Offering absolute privacy while gated with lush landscaping and generous motor court. An extensive renovation offering the finest in quality materials and designer finishes. With nearly three times the average ceiling height, the expansive floor plan allows for grand living spaces with massive volume for entertaining. Art collectors will have an overabundance of art walls for their best-loved pieces. An alfresco style great room with floor to ceiling windows allows for soothing light to cascade across the floors creating an array of geometric patterns and filtered light.
