Perfectly situated in prime Bel Air, minutes from the Bel Air Hotel on a private cul de sac sits this meticulously remodeled modern-contemporary home. Not many homes in Stone Canyon offers sunlight through out the day as this home does. As you enter through the 12 ft wooden door, you are greeted with high ceilings, windows, wooden floors and natural light that radiates throughout the house creating a warm and inviting environment. The family room has soaring ceilings, fireplace and windows that open up to view the canyon and manicured front yard. Large open kitchen with custom Italian cabinets, marble island and top of the line appliances. From the kitchen, sliding doors open to the backyard creating that true California indoor/outdoor living. The staircase, illuminated by a large beautiful skylight leads up to 4 bedrooms, primary suite, and meditation / reading area. From the master, cross over the bridge to a resort style pool and a private guest/pool house. The backyard is extremely private, sunny and well manicured with beautiful plantings and trees. This home has been meticulously renovated with no detail spared.
