ICONIC DESIGN OF VISIONARY ARCHITECT HARRY GESNER, AIA, 1970. End of the Coveted Cole Place cul-de-sac; gated with a long driveway on a promontory overlooking the Los Angeles skyline and Pacific Ocean. Courtyard fountain entry with glass doors peering through the tremendous architecture to the views beyond. Stone floors, soaring fireplaces, and walls of glass with the trademark wave roofline Gesner's trademark style. This exceptional residence boasts a massive primary suite with his and hers baths/closets, fabulous entertaining principle rooms with a chef's kitchen complete with an island, skylights, and exceptionally appointed appliances. 2 additional bedrooms at this level with a flexible office or 3rd bedroom. Below is a 2 bedroom suite, a junior kitchen, theatre room, and storage along with exterior patio and more privacy. This architectural trophy is the perfect place to entertain or hide away in the sky. Gorgeous interiors, sprawling decks and an infinity edge pool. Available immediately for a negotiated term.
