Blissful Cascade

A very special property located on one of the most sought after streets in Beverly Hills. This custom contemporary estate was designed by world famous and acclaimed Cuban decorator Waldo Fernandez . His unique artistry is seen and felt throughout the house. While offering an incredible wow-factor the moment you step inside, there is also a sense of serenity. A lush green front yard invites guests into the beautiful home with a seamless transition from the outside to the spectacular interior incorporating culture and greenery with beautiful sculptures, pottery, and artwork. An open floor-plan layout is more than a just a feature, it's an artistic movement beginning with the Bell Tower entry chandelier designed by Alison Berger. Every step through the space highlights hardwoods, modern but warm finishes. The living room features a glowing fireplace with vaulted ceilings, the dining room with windows offers natural light . Be lifted away by this architectural moment.
