Perched high above the iconic Sunset Strip, this furnished home offers unrivaled views spanning from the picturesque canyons to the sprawling cityscape and extending to the horizon of the Pacific Ocean. This visionary residence was conceptualized by renowned California developer, Justin Klentner, celebrated for his portfolio of architectural triumphs ranging from sumptuously avant-garde private residences to the prestigious Restoration Hardware flagship store on Melrose Avenue. The interior unfolds as a masterpiece of modern architecture made up of four meticulously crafted levels with striking sculptural staircases and a transparent tubular elevator. Inside, a sumptuous interplay of warm hardwood, cool marble, and captivating lighting creates an ambiance that is nothing short of masterful. Vast windows frame these exquisite views, seamlessly integrating the outdoor beauty with the interior opulence. Ascend to an awe-inspiring rooftop oasis, providing an unmatched vantage point overlooking the entire city. This open-air top floor is the true jewel of the property featuring a pool with hot tub, an outdoor living space with flat screen TV, built-in barbecue, refrigerator and bathroom that was purposefully designed for hosting unforgettable gatherings under the radiant California sun and the shimmering starlit nights.
