MARCO ISLAND, FL, UNITED STATES, September 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Patrick "Pat" Wilkins, Broker Associate with RE/MAX Alliance Group, is celebrating 30 years of service with the RE/MAX network while continuing to rank among its leading real estate professionals in 2026.

In a letter dated August 10, 2026, RE/MAX Holdings, Inc. CEO Erik Carlson congratulated Wilkins on three decades of membership and accomplishments with the global real estate brand, recognizing the work ethic, commitment and positive impact he has brought to RE/MAX and to the many buyers and sellers he has served.

The anniversary arrives during another highly ranked year. To date in 2026, Wilkins is the No. 1 Marco Island agent by RealTrends. Within RE/MAX's 2026 year-to-date rankings, he stands No. 1 in Florida, No. 4 in the United States and No. 8 worldwide. Because the year remains in progress, these rankings reflect current 2026 performance rather than final full-year results.

"Thirty years with RE/MAX represents far more than an anniversary," said Wilkins. "It reflects the trust of clients, the strength of long-standing relationships and the discipline to keep showing up at a high level in every market. I am grateful for the recognition, but I am even more grateful to the buyers, sellers, colleagues and professional partners who have been part of the journey."

Wilkins has represented buyers and sellers across Marco Island, Naples and Southwest Florida for more than 40 years and has surpassed $1.4 billion in career sales. His practice spans luxury waterfront estates, homes and condominiums, lots and land, new construction and investment real estate. He has twice reached the No. 1 RE/MAX worldwide position during his career and has earned more than 100 industry awards and recognitions.

His 2026 results have reinforced that record. Earlier this year, Wilkins closed the $15.15 million sale of a newly constructed waterfront estate at 1640 Dolphin Court in Naples' Royal Harbour neighborhood. The transaction marked the highest sale on the bay in Royal Harbour in more than four years and represented a personal career milestone.

Wilkins attributes sustained performance to local market fluency, candid counsel and a relationship-centered approach to representation. From evaluating waterfront exposure, boating access and seawalls to positioning complex luxury properties for a global audience, his work combines decades of market knowledge with contemporary digital, print and international marketing.

“Luxury clients expect thoughtful counsel, clarity and experience,” Wilkins said. “Rankings are meaningful because they reflect results, but the real measure is whether a client feels informed, protected and confidently represented from the first conversation through closing.”
