SELENE OCEANFRONT RESIDENCES

Soaring to 300 feet, the two slender towers of Fort Lauderdale's newest luxury condominium are also the tallest on its award-winning beachfront, showcasing unparalleled panoramic Atlantic Ocean, Intracoastal, and city skyline views. At Selene, contemporary architecture by Kobi Karp, spacious residences with expansive private terraces, a host of indoor and outdoor resort-style amenities, and an unrivaled oceanfront dining experience all come together to offer a lifestyle of genuinely relaxed elegance.

ABOUT ME

Adam and his sister Jacqueline form the Distinctive Palm Beach Propertie's Team, a high-powered agent duo that has made a name for itself in Palm Beach real estate.

In 2006 Adam transitioned from stockbroker with a Wall Street Investment firm to becoming a real estate agent at Martha A. Gottfried (now Douglas Elliman). His sister joined him in Palm Beach, bringing with her experience as a financial analyst for a major New York investment firm. Over the years, the Distinctive Palm Beach Property Team has achieved some remarkable successes including the sale of a vacant parcel of Intracoastal land in the Estate section of Palm Beach for $8.65 million in a record 3 ½ months. The price attained was 40 per cent above market estimates by other agents. The team won the listing through their tenacity and creative marketing plan.

The team's results-driven approach is reflected in their website, Distinctive Palm Beach Properties, which they created to showcase their listings, facilitate client search, and provide a window into the Palm Beach lifestyle. The website features the best deals on Island properties, and is continuously updated as new listings come to market.

Adam and his sister live on the Island of Palm Beach year-round, which gives them in-depth knowledge of the local market. With their focus on Palm Beach, combined with their finance and sales experience, the brother and sister team can provide accurate, up-to-date market information, expert advice and in-depth analysis of the best deals on the
