

Home Prices Forecast To Climb

over the Next 5 Years

If you're worried about what's next for home prices, here's what the experts are projecting.

Experts Say Home Prices Will Keep Going Up

The Home Price Expectation Survey (HPES) from Fannie Mae is a survey of over one hundred economists, real estate experts, and investment and market strategists.

It shows experts are projecting home prices will continue to rise at least through 2028.

Estimated Home Price Performance

December to December, as Forecast in Q4 2023

How Does This Affect You?

Based on this forecast, if you bought a $400,000 house this year, experts say it could gain

over $72,000 in equity over the next five years.

If you're worried about falling home prices, don't be. Experts forecast they'll keep rising for years to come. If you have questions, ask a local real estate agent.
