The Gatsby - Where Hollywood History and Timeless Design Meet

We're honored to introduce one of the most unique listings on the Eastside, The Gatsby, a 1930's Paul R. Williams estate that once hosted glamorous gatherings for Alexander Pantages and his Hollywood circle!

The home reflects the early work of Paul R. Williams, the legendary architect who broke racial barriers and became known as the "architect to the stars." Over his five-decade career, Williams designed more than 3,000 homes, including estates for icons like Lucille Ball, Barbara Stanwyck, and later, Frank Sinatra and the Paleys. His style was elegant, functional, and deeply romantic, blending classic European influences with California ease!

Set during the Golden Age of cinema, The Gatsby was part of a social scene that attracted early Hollywood legends. It's said that figures like Charlie Chaplin were among the extended circle that found inspiration and discretion within homes like this!

Today, the estate has been masterfully reimaged by Gary Mkrtychyan of Opus Builders. The restoration honors its Spanish Revival soul while elevating it for modern luxury. A soaring vaulted ceiling with hand-stenciled wood beams crowns the main living space. Romantic balconies and curved archways guide you through the home's intimate yet grand layout. A secret speakeasy lounge, known as The Velvet Room, invites private entertaining, while a custom chef's kitchen opens to terraced gardens and mature landscaping!

Few homes offer this level of architectural pedigree, historical richness, and contemporary refinement. The Gatsby is more than a residence, it's a living piece of Los Angeles history!

Let us know if you'd like to schedule a private showing or learn more about the home's legacy!
