Welcome to this thoughtfully designed new subdivision, where the Texas Hill Country's natural beauty takes center stage. It appears there is a spring on the property that could expand into a small pond/tank. Scattered with majestic oaks, graceful cedar elms, and lush native pastures, the landscape unfolds into gently rolling hills with sweeping long-range views. A private well is already in place, and underground electricity is available, making it easy to bring your vision to life. The community requires a minimum 1,800 sq. ft. main residence, with the flexibility to add a guest house, pool, and barn or shop. The builder also offers ready-to-go plans designed to fit a variety of lifestyles. Just minutes from Fredericksburg along the picturesque Pedernales River Valley, this subdivision blends convenience with the tranquility of country living. Reasonable restrictions are in place to protect your investment while still offering the freedom to create a property that suits your needs. Currently under a wildlife exemption, the property provides the opportunity to enjoy local wildlife and even exotic species that roam the area. Bed & Breakfast rentals are permitted, making this not only an ideal homestead but also a potential income-generating property. Come experience the charm, the views, and the possibilities—this subdivision was designed with both beauty and practicality in mind.
