Eureka Farm offers a rare opportunity to own unrestricted riverfront acreage in one of the most desirable areas of Gillespie County. Accessed by Eureka Ln, a privately owned road, the property offers an added sense of privacy as level pastureland stretches toward the water and mature trees line the riverbanks, creating a shaded corridor rich with wildlife and Hill Country beauty. Located just minutes from Fredericksburg and the renowned wineries and vineyards along the Texas Highway 290 Wine Trail, the property blends scenic Hill Country beauty with exceptional usability and long-term investment potential.

At the center of the ranch is a distinctive 3,544± sq. ft. main home, blending an original German homestead with thoughtful additions that expand the living space while preserving the property's character. The home offers a warm, established feel with multiple living areas, inviting outdoor spaces, and views over the surrounding grounds. A 1,512± sq. ft. guest house adds flexibility for extended family, ranch help, or additional accommodations, making the property well suited for multigenerational use or a family compound setup.

Designed with both lifestyle and utility in mind, the ranch includes extensive improvements that support equestrian, agricultural, and storage needs. A well-equipped six-stall horse barn complete with a wash rack, tack room and individual turnouts, along with pipe fencing, barns, sheds, RV storage, and open pasture well suited for horses, livestock or general ranch use. A strong well further enhances the property's long-term utility. Whether envisioned as a private riverfront homestead, horse property, recreational retreat, or legacy investment, Eureka Farm stands out for its combination of water, usability, improvements, and location.
