Hidden between Venice & Culver City, Mar Vista offers a perfect blend of suburban calm & Westside vibrance. Breezy, tree-lined streets showcase a mix of mid-century gems & sleek new builds, while Venice Blvd pulses with life—from coffee shops & farm-to-table eateries to artisan boutiques & beloved local festivals.

At the heart of it all? A thriving farmers market that captures the neighborhood’s creative spirit. Top-rated public & private schools, chill parks, & unbeatable access to both the beach a&nd downtown make Mar Vista more than a neighborhood—it’s a world of its own. Effortless, authentic, & unmistakably LA.

IS NOW THE TIME TO SELL YOUR HOME?

08

SELLERS

Yes, if you price strategically.

- Inventory is rising across neighborhoods like Mar Vista, Venice, Santa Monica, Marina del Rey & Brentwood, but buyer demand remains strong for homes priced correctly.
 - Over 50% of listings are experiencing price reductions, which means overpricing is getting punished.
 - If your home is updated, well-located, & you launch with a strong pricing strategy, you can still attract multiple offers.
 - The luxury market (over $5M), however, is moving slower due to ULA tax concerns & limited buyer pool.
- 🧠 Pro tip: Event-based pricing & proper presentation are key. Sellers who "test the market" often end up chasing it down.

IS NOW THE TIME TO BUY YOUR HOME?

BUYERS

Yes, if you're ready — but please be strategic.

- Rates are still elevated (~6.75–7%), but this has created less competition in many price ranges.
 - In places like Mar Vista, Venice, Brentwood, Santa Monica & Marina del Rey, motivated sellers are cutting prices, creating opportunities.
 - The market has not crashed — but it's softening just enough for savvy buyers to negotiate credits, repairs, & better deals.
- 💡 If you're planning to live in the home for 5+ years, buying now with room to refi later could be a winning move.
