130+ FAMILIES HELPED $40M+ IN SALES

A full time real estate professional since 2016, Judy has been investing in real estate since 2006 and understands the financial, emotional, and logistical concerns of any move. Judy is known for her professionalism, responsiveness, and results-driven approach.

She understands that strong agent relationships lead to smoother transactions, and she values clear, respectful communication on both sides of the deal. Judy takes pride in being a trusted, solution-oriented partner for buyer agents and their clients, working collaboratively to get everyone to the closing table with confidence.

Her background as corporate executive in broadcasting and media management allows her to deliver best-in-class marketing for her sellers, while her organized, detail-oriented systems make the process efficient and stress-free for all parties involved.

Agents consistently say Judy is a pleasure to work with, and clients appreciate her ability to educate, advocate, and execute at every stage of the transaction. If you're working with a serious home buyer and want a responsive, professional listing agent on the other side of the deal, you'll find that in Judy.
