

Discover Union City, California

Union City is a vibrant Bay Area suburb, ideally located between San Francisco and Silicon Valley. This location provides easy access to major job centers, cultural attractions and top schools.

Consistently ranked among California's best suburbs, it offers excellent schools like James Logan High, scenic parks such as Quarry Lakes Regional Recreation Area, diverse dining options and convenient BART transit connecting the region. The city is committed to sustainability and innovation through eco-friendly infrastructure and a welcoming community.

From its railroad and agricultural roots to a modern tech-driven center, Union City blends suburban calm with urban energy. Its strong community spirit makes it an attractive home for residents and businesses alike, offering the best of both worlds in the Bay Area.

Location & Geography

Prime Bay Area Location

Union City sits strategically between San Francisco and Silicon Valley, providing residents easy access to major employment hubs and cultural landmarks.

Geographic Features

Set on flatlands near the San Francisco Bay with scenic hills on the eastern side, Union City features a mix of urban development and natural green spaces.

Education & Community

Union City features a top-ranked education system under New Haven Unified School District, with strong K-12 programs focused on achievement and diversity.

James Logan High School, the district's flagship, offers Advanced Placement courses, acclaimed arts and competitive sports, attracting families valuing education.

Community centers serve as hubs for cultural activities, youth programs and support services, enhancing life for all ages.

Transportation

BART Station

Direct connections to San Francisco, Oakland and other Bay Area destinations, easing commuter travel.

Interstate Access

Four Interstate 880 exits provide multiple highway entry points, reducing congestion and enabling quick city access.

Public Transit

AC Transit, local buses and shuttles offer broad coverage for travel without a personal vehicle.

Parks & Recreation

Union City offers miles of recreational space, highlighted by Dry Creek Regional Park with extensive hiking trails through natural California landscapes for exercise and relaxation.

The city features numerous sports fields, tennis and basketball courts and community centers with year-round programs for all ages, including youth sports leagues and senior fitness classes. Other parks include Kennedy Park with large lawns and playgrounds for families, Contempo Park with art installations and community events and Quarry Lakes Regional Recreation Area for swimming and fishing.

Union City's Recreation Department runs diverse programs such as youth leagues for baseball, soccer and basketball, along with swimming lessons, summer camps, adult fitness, tennis and senior activities at community centers.

Community Centers

Kennedy Youth Center

Supports youth with tutoring, mentorship, leadership workshops, plus fun events like game and paint nights and trips.

Mark Green Sports Center

Offers aerobics, yoga, Zumba, basketball, volleyball and a full weight and cardio room for all ages.

Holly Community Center

Features an auditorium, meeting rooms, classrooms and kitchen available for community events and rentals.

Ruggieri Senior Center

Provides seniors with classes, social events, fitness, games and discounted local trips.

Dining & Shopping

Union Landing Shopping Center

This 100-acre complex features over 70 stores, restaurants and entertainment venues, serving as the community's retail hub with major chains and specialty boutiques.

Specialty Markets

Marina Food and other local markets provide international ingredients, fresh produce and specialty items reflecting the community's tastes and traditions.

Global Cuisine

Union City's diverse population shines in its culinary scene, with authentic Filipino, Indian, Chinese, Mexican and Mediterranean restaurants, among others.

Convenient Retailers

Target and other retail centers offer easy access to everyday essentials, home goods and popular brands within city limits.

Why Union City?

Quality of Life

Exceptional living with all amenities including parks, recreational facilities and cultural events that cater to families and individuals alike. Residents enjoy a safe, clean and vibrant environment that supports a balanced lifestyle.

Strategic Location

Situated conveniently between San Francisco and Silicon Valley, Union City provides easy access to major economic centers while maintaining a peaceful suburban atmosphere. This location offers residents the benefit of nearby job opportunities, entertainment and urban amenities without the hustle of city living.

Educational Excellence

Home to top-rated schools and numerous educational programs, Union City supports lifelong learning and development. Families benefit from highly qualified educators, modern facilities and strong extracurricular activities that help nurture student success.