Sharon Quist is one of Dallas's favorite realtors, and it's no surprise why. Her success is built on four core qualities: trustworthiness, tenacity, product knowledge and commitment. A powerhouse in the industry, these attributes have established her among the best of the best.

Quist has been the #1 Luxury High Rise Agent (Volume) since 2014 and is a D Magazine Best Realtor and Top Producer. She holds the title of #1 Agent Volume Companywide at Dave Perry-Miller Real Estate and has been named a Top Real Estate Agent and Power Player by Modern Luxury Magazine. Additionally, she leads resales at the Ritz-Carlton and Stoneleigh Residences.

"The greatest professional risk I've taken was making a deposit on a unit at The Residences at the Ritz-Carlton," Quist says. "It was four years before construction began and I couldn't afford it. Instead of flipping it for a profit, I moved into it upon completion. That move launched my luxury high-rise journey, which is now my specialty."

Passionate about giving back to her community, Quist supports organizations like Uptown Dallas, Inc., Oak Lawn Committee, Turtle Creek Association, CitySquare, North Texas Food Bank, Broadway Dallas, AT&T Performing Arts Center and the Clayton Dabney Foundation for Kids with Cancer.

Living in Uptown Dallas, Sharon adores the cultural buzz at Klyde Warren Park, Victory Park and the Arts District, plus the exceptional fine dining scene. She loves the walkability, quick highway access and vibrant high-rise vibe. Recognizable throughout Dallas, you'll spot her cruising the city in her signature Bentley or sipping her specialty cocktail, the Quistini.
