I would like to see more taken care of and cleaner bathrooms. Also more control on students behaviors because of the bullying. I suggest to join the scholars if you are planning on attending.

Teaching and leading in a middle school has to be a challenge, but the teachers, coaches and administrators at Nautilus Middle deserve a round of applause. This is a well-run school that strives to meet the divergent needs of its students. These students are mentally shifting from an elementary school and preparing for high school, and Nautilus does this very well. There are problems but they deal with them ASAP.

I honestly loved the teachers I had when I was in middle school. Every school will have a group of bad apples and students that fight but in all honesty, I enjoyed my middle school years.

Most amazing 4 years of my life. I met my forever friends. the faculty and staff were amazing, very helpful, and always on top of everything

I love Miami Beach Senior high because there is everything. So, especially if your someone who may be indecisive on what you may wan to be in the future Beach High really helps in providing experience in all kinds of fields. Personally I felt as I am currently getting a well rounded form of education. However, I feel that if you need a lot of one-on-one Beach high might not be the best option, because the amount of kids does require you to be a somewhat independent learner and not depend so much on the teacher.

Throughout the four years of this high school in Miami Beach, Florida, it's odd, as I traversed the COVID-19 restrictions as the class of 2023. Coinciding with the onset of the prolonged restrictions, it's no wonder that my sophomore year was the worst year in the entirety of my academic history, with loneliness purging in the sessions through a computer. But that one year and event alone don't tell the whole story. Due to the extracurriculars, atmosphere, and events during the senior year, it has contributed to the higher three-star rating I'd give the high school experience. And that's the best year ever in the academic life. There are problems that do have to be addressed. One of them is the student restrooms often locked due to students smoking, causing the rest in dire need, to suffer. The others are the sanitation of those said restrooms, as well as less security officers and teachers who are more assertive in their job and a better pay rate. Overall, it was mediocre

My overall experience at Miami Beach Senior High School was unforgettable. As a student who transferred in the initiation of her junior year, I instantly felt as if I found a place which I could proudly call my second home. Despite the intense academic rigor of this school's International Baccalaureate IB program, I exemplified traits such as perseverance, diligence, and curiosity, due to the outstanding models provided by my professors and fellow peers. In addition, I attained numerous leadership positions, such as my senatorial position for my senior class, as well as my co-presidency of my school's chapter of the National Honor Society, which demonstrated to me the value and power of the unification of a community. I wish that future generations of students at this school would place greater emphasis upon executing charitable initiatives and fundraisers, and I am confident that they will, as they boldly carve new paths from those derived from generations of invaluable alumni.
