

What We Love About the House...

1186 Robert Hardeman Rd. Winterville, GA

We really enjoy living just outside of Athens. It is close enough that you can be there in 10-20 minutes, but far enough away to enjoy a peaceful quiet surrounded by trees without much traffic. Winterville is a charming place that always has local events (free music concerts on Saturday afternoons for several weeks in the spring and fall, farmers' market every Saturday, festivals, performances at the local auditorium, etc.), and the locals are incredibly friendly. We just love living in a location where both downtown Athens and Winterville are easily accessible.

The home itself is a charming one-level brick ranch that just floods with light and warmth from the moment you walk in. We took great care with updating the space to give the home a fresh, move-in-ready feel while keeping that timeless brick-ranch character. Out back, the huge deck is the perfect spot for morning coffee or evening gatherings, overlooking the wide backyard that sits on a sprawling 1.74-acre lot. It really is quite peaceful. We also love sitting on the front porch in the morning to take in the sweet peaceful sounds of the neighborhood. If you're looking to live in a peaceful and updated home in convenient proximity to a charming downtown community, well, this is it!
