

LAS VEGAS NEVADAS' ONE SURE BET

Lisa Quam is a Fine Home Specialist who learned the art of representing affluent buyers and sellers alike through the guidance and mentorship of the late Florence Shapiro, a legend in the Las Vegas luxury real estate industry. Calling Las Vegas home for over 40 years, she has been serving the Las Vegas community as a Fine Home Specialist for over 14 years and is committed to providing all of her clients with the Experience, Knowledge & Expertise to help guide them through the process of purchasing or selling.

Lisa truly loves her chosen career and enjoys making the house hunting experience a pleasurable one for her clients, all the while being a continuous resource in order for them to gain a FULL understanding of the sales or listing process from beginning to end as well as after the transaction has closed. She prides herself on being a skilled communicator with a solid grasp on the art of negotiation. Her focus is on consistency in facilitating a successful real estate transaction by way of experienced contract negotiation coupled with her stellar interpersonal skills.

Lisa is also the Founder and President of The Imagine Foundation which puts brand new, quality instruments in the hands of children in public schools that are in need. From 2011 to 2019, Lisa's foundation has raised over $150,000.00 through public donations and grants from instrument manufacturers to help to keep music alive and well for kids in the Las Vegas public school system.

Whether you're buying or selling, Lisa highly recommends working with an experienced real estate professional who has their finger on the pulse of the market in which you are interested and who will negotiate on your behalf with YOUR best interest at the forefront. Lisa welcomes the opportunity for new clients. If you are interested in learning more about Lisa and how she can assist you in the buying or selling process, please see her contact her below.
