Irmo, SC

WHAT IS IT KNOWN FOR

Irmo, South Carolina is located in both Lexington and Richland counties and is considered a suburb of Columbia. Irmo is about 10 miles from Downtown Columbia and home to a large Lake Murray community, Big Box Stores including Costco and Sam's Club, Harbison and Columbiana Shopping Centers, and Saluda Shoals Park.

HISTORY

Irmo, a charming South Carolina town, traces its roots back to the 19th century. 1 It emerged as a railroad stop along the Columbia, Newberry, and Laurens Railroad line. 2 Incorporated in 1890, Irmo was named after two railroad officials, C.J. Iredell and H.C. Moseley. 3 Over the years, Irmo has grown into a vibrant community, blending its historical heritage with modern amenities. It's known for its friendly atmosphere, excellent schools, and proximity to Lake Murray, a popular recreational destination.
