

PICTURE PERFECT

With jaw-dropping views from almost every room, this penthouse couldn't get any more scenic.

BY KM

South Boston's booming, historic neighborhood is nothing short of a feast for the eyes—just imagine taking in this view from two private balconies and a roof deck. At 2 G St., Unit 4, corner penthouse dreams become a reality with neutral tones, detailed molding, hardwood floors and covered outdoor spaces. "It's at the heart of everything happening in South Boston but positioned just so that it offers privacy and a more tranquil environment," says listing agent Ricardo Rodriguez. Step into this lavish three-bed, three-bath residence and envelop yourself in the natural light that streams through expansive windows. An open-concept space ensures panoramic views can be enjoyed from every angle and entertaining guests is a snap. Glide into the kitchen, where a large peninsula, polished stone countertops, tiled backsplash and classic Shaker-style cabinetry wow. After dinner, retire to the adjacent living area—a gas fireplace serves as the centerpiece, surrounded by custom built-ins and stunning woodwork. Just when you thought it couldn't get any better, float upstairs to the primary suite, which houses an over-the-top custom walk-in closet, private balcony and en suite. However, nothing compares to the private roofdeck, with unparalleled views of downtown and beyond. $1,850,000, 2 G St., Unit 4, Ricardo Rodriguez, 617.823.0072, ricardoboston.com

From top: The primary suite wows with expansive space and a custom walk-in closet; an open living space is perfect for entertaining.

