

SINGER ISLAND ISN'T JUST WHERE I WORK.

IT'S WHERE I'VE BUILT
MY BUSINESS AND REPUTATION.

I've been coming to Singer Island since 1997, long before I imagined one day I would call it home and build my real estate business here.

Before real estate, I spent three decades as an educator, elementary school principal, college professor, curriculum writer and author.

Each chapter of my career taught me something I still carry with me today: listen and reliably deliver to my clients, communicate clearly, know your craft and above all, take care of the people who place their trust in you.

Today, those same values at the foundation of Singer Island Real Estate.

I know this island-the buildings, the communities, the lifestyle and the nuances that make each property different. But just as important, I understand that buying or selling a home is rarely just a transaction. It's often the beginning or the ending of an important chapter in someone's life.

That is why my philosophy has always been simple:

RELATIONSHIPS COME BEFORE TRANSACTIONS.

YOUR SINGER ISLAND STORY STARTS HERE

I am fortunate to call Singer Island my home. It is unique and every building has their own personality, history and lifestyle. Knowing those differences matters. To me, real estate has always been about much more than knowing the buildings or understanding the market.

Its knowing people.

I've learned over my career that clients remember whether you answered the phone, listened to what mattered, told them the truth and stayed beside them when decisions became difficult.

That is the kind of real estate experience I've built my business around.

Whether you are selling a long time home or searching for a new one, or simply wondering what your property may be worth, you don;t need to be ready to make a move to call me.

Sometimes the best real estate relationship begins with a conversation.

WHY WORK WITH DAWN?

A DIFFERENT KIND OF REAL ESTATE EXPERIENCE

LOCAL KNOWLEDGE

Singer Island is a collection of very different buildings and communities. Knowing the history, amenities, associations, rental policies and individual nuances matters when you're buying or selling here.

PERSONAL ATTENTION

When you hire me, you work directly with me. I answer the phone, coordinate the details, negotiate on your behalf and remain involved from our first conversation through closing and beyond.

STRATEGIC MARKETING

Beautiful photography is only the beginning. Pricing, positioning, presentation, relationships and knowing how to reach the right buyer are what turn exposure into results.

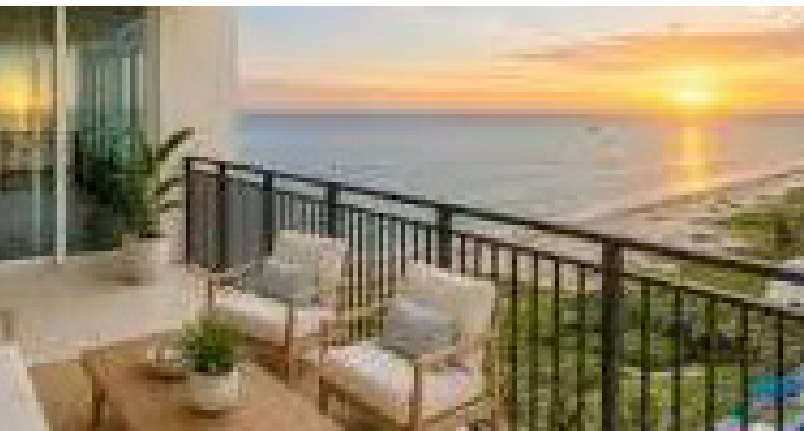

RELATIONSHIPS THAT LAST

Many of my clients become friends, return for future transactions and refer their family and friends. That trust means more to me than any individual sale.

Your property deserves more than a listing. It deserves a strategy.

THINKING ABOUT SELLING?

I'd be happy to provide a confidential, no-pressure evaluation of your Singer Island property.
