Bruce Glazer's love of Chicago real estate shows. Last year alone, he sold over $25 million in residential real estate. Bruce takes pride in being able to provide every client with exceptional concierge service from the first meeting to the closing and beyond.

"Each sale is not a transaction, it is a relationship for years to come," he says.

Bruce has been a top-producing broker in Chicago for the past nine years. He specializes in luxury homebuyers and sellers, as well as first-time buyers and sellers. Bruce enjoys developing one-on-one relationships with his clients and provides exceptional service throughout every step of the home buying or selling process.

"I like to be the only one working with the client, rather than handing them off to an associate broker."

With nearly a decade in the business, he has many accolades including "Notable Residential Real Estate Broker" by Crain's Chicago Business a "Real Estate Visionary" by Chicago Men's Book, and has been featured on many local news channels and newspapers for his commentary about the Chicago real estate market.

2020 has been an interesting, but very strong market this summer. Bruce continues to be there day in and day out for all his clients.
