RIEZL
BAKER

REALTOR / CO-FOUNDER

Riezl Baker's 25-year career in real estate is defined by one constant: exceptional service. With a background in hospitality, she brings a client-first approach to every transaction, viewing real estate as far more than buying and selling homes. "To me, it's about guiding people through one of the most meaningful transitions and investments of their lives," she shares.

An award-winning agent with $1 billion in career sales, Baker is also a respected public speaker. She recently took the stage at a global conference, where she shared the "secrets of highly successful realtors," drawing from her 25 years of experience navigating multiple market cycles and building a thriving luxury business.

Baker has played a defining role in shaping the luxury market in Lake Oconee and the Middle Georgia region. A resident since 1997, her knowledge runs deep, witnessing the community's evolution firsthand and even selling the same properties multiple times. Her expertise allows her to guide clients through the nuances of the market, from water depth and dock potential to club memberships, neighborhood distinctions, and long-term value.

Baker's influence extends well beyond real estate. She was instrumental in helping bring the local hospital to life and continues to serve on its board. She co-founded the Lake Oconee Food and Wine Festival to benefit education and serves as a board director for the Oconee Performing Arts Society. Most recently, she chaired the Heart and Soul Gala at The Ritz-Carlton, Lake Oconee, raising $800,000 for healthcare initiatives.
