

Jordan Park / Laurel Heights
150 Palm Avenue, #1

There is something special about Palm Avenue in Jordan Park. Perhaps it is the wide, tree-lined streets or the detached buildings, but homes on the street exude San Francisco charm. 150 Palm #1 is no exception. This classic two-bedroom, one-bathroom condo maintains original character through its molding, picture-rails, arched windows and original yet refinished and newly stained hardwood floors. The period character is balanced with a contemporary remodeled kitchen with high-end appliances, crisp white tile, quartz countertops, and a walk-in pantry with an abundance of storage. Sliding doors open onto a private patio with planter boxes where you can grow your own herb garden. Perhaps the most stellar feature of this special condo is the expansive living room, featuring arched windows and built-ins for extra storage. This half-floor condo benefits from windows on three sides, allowing for consistent natural light and a lovely cross breeze on warmer days. A primary suite with en-suite bathroom, a second bedroom, parking and an additional shared outdoor space complete this home. Located in the heart of the city, 150 Palm Avenue is nearby notable restaurants like Burma Superstar and Lily, renowned Arsicault Bakery and a quick walk to the Presidio and Golden Gate Park.
