2341 FRANKLIN STREET, #5

1 BED | 1 BATH | 1 PARKING | $1,195,000

Welcome to your serene one-bedroom retreat, located at the rear of a classic brick building on Franklin Street. With peek-a-boo Golden Gate Bridge views, this top-floor one-bedroom condominium is the perfect abode for those looking for a spacious, quiet retreat. This home checks all the boxes — it has a true great room with a dining area that easily fits six people and flows into the living room, which features a fireplace, built-ins for a book collection and bay windows with charming outlooks. Adjacent to the dining area is a spectacular chef's kitchen with bar seating for four, high-end stainless steel appliances and full-height cabinetry. Off of the kitchen is a discreet closet that hides a full-size washer and dryer.

The bedroom is truly oversized with space for a king bed and a reading area, with views of both bridge peaks and mature trees. The bedroom features an expansive walk-in closet and opens to the ensuite bathroom with original and well-cared for blue-and-white tile installed a century ago. The classic tile is complemented by an upgraded vanity and jacuzzi tub paired with stylish beadboard and white tiles. An additional walk-in hall closet and one-car independent parking round out this perfect San Francisco condo.
