BOARD APPOINTMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Candice Rich Appointed to the Advisory Board of On The Wings of Angels

Business and financial leadership experience joins a mission dedicated to supporting survivors of domestic violence.

Candice Rich has been welcomed as a member of the Advisory Board of On The Wings of Angels, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization supporting survivors of domestic violence.

A luxury real estate advisor serving Birmingham and Oakland County, Michigan, through @properties REMI | Christie's International Real Estate, Rich brings a background spanning more than 30 years in financial and tax advising, including 22 years leading her own CPA firm.

Her appointment reflects a commitment to community, the empowerment of women, and helping survivors move forward with dignity, hope, and opportunities to rebuild their lives.

> "Candice has one of the most beautiful hearts, and brilliant minds I know! When she walks into your life, she immediately helps you believe the future just became a little brighter."
> — JoJo Dries, Founder, On The Wings of Angels

In welcoming Rich, founder JoJo Dries highlighted her leadership, generosity, and belief in second chances, as well as the experience she will contribute as the organization continues to grow.
