AN ADDRESS WITH SOMETHING TO SAY

CUTTING-EDGE ARCHITECTURE

From the very first glimpse, it's clear that Diesel Wynwood is much more than a residential building. It's the herald of a new era. The open courtyards with its Italian designed lofts keeps the building connected to the street, while its massive murals and vibrant sculptural façade proclaim its influence beyond simple walls and borders. It's like living in a piece of art and turning a landmark into a lifestyle – a place that defines itself on its own terms.

Bold? Certainly! But, also refreshingly geared towards sustainability, wellness, creativity, and unconventional enjoyment.

In this axis of independent thinking, 159 unique residences come together in a new expression of community. Outdoor spaces are part playground, part art gallery.

NEVER BORING. EVER.
