What were you like as a kid?

A: I was the son my war hero father never had. The dreamer daughter, athletic and adventurous, getting up at 5 a.m. to go fishing, as long as dad put the worm on the hook.

Q: How do you define success?

A: Success can mean many things. Fulfillment through accomplishment, gaining wisdom in the process, moving forward to meet new challenges and creating new opportunity.

Q: What is your favorite place in LA?

A: Favorite place is the ocean—walking barefoot on wet sand, smelling the salt air, and feeling the rhythms of the ocean. Letting my mind and eyes rest on the beauty of nature.

Q: What do you look forward to at the end of the day?

A: A challenging game of tennis with dear friends who are fierce competitors.

Q: What makes you a Dynamic Woman?

A: Knowing: "Because" is not an acceptable answer.

Understanding: "No" is a state of mind.

Learning: How to create my yeses and going with them.

Teaching: All of the above to my daughters to pass on to another generation.

Q: What is your passion?

A: Being of service, because to live in a place obliges me to do my part in making it better for everyone. I've served on the Los Angeles Recreation and Parks Committee in Pacific Palisades, worked on the Nick Melvoin campaign in his successful bid for the LA Unified School Board, and served as a fundraiser for A Window Between Worlds and Give Back Homes.
