Public: Beautiful example of a Carmel M.J. Murphy English country cottage but located in Pacific Grove near the waterfront with ocean views! Designed and built by the celebrated local builder in 1934, this rare home is sited on an oversized lot just 2 homes above Ocean View Blvd. and the waterfront and has fantastic curb appeal. At just under 1000 square feet, with a charming living room with a fireplace, a vintage kitchen, dining room, 2 bedrooms and a remodeled bathroom, the interior is just as charming. The location is a 10, close to downtown Pacific Grove restaurants and shopping, the bike trail, Lovers Point, Berwick Park and Cannery Row. Add in an approximately 344 square foot sunroom, a beautifully landscaped yard and a garage plus off-street parking, you are way ahead of the game in PG. Enjoy your front row seat to whales, sea otters, seals, sea lions, sea birds, not to mention the sight and sounds of the white water surf crashing into the granite shores.

Public:Welcome home. This charming Pacific Grove home is located in one of PG's most desirable neighborhoods, between Lover's Point Beach and downtown. Everything is just a short walk away. This 1 bedroom and 1 bath house has been tastefully remodeled with Viking Range, Subzero refrigerators, Miele dishwasher and a clean interior. Enjoy all PG has to offer, either full time or just as a pied-a-terre. The owner also owns 141 Caledonia Ave, and will consider selling both properties as a package.
