

LUXURY VILLA IN GATED COMMUNITY

LA RESERVA, MANUEL ANTONIO

PRICE

$5,450,000

Perched on a ridge in the exclusive gated community of La Reserva in Quepos, this exceptional 4-bedroom, 4 full bath and 2 1/2 bath luxury residence offers an unparalleled combination of privacy, natural beauty, and high-end living. Ideally located just five minutes from the world class Marina Pez Vela and only ten minutes from the golden beaches and lush rainforest pathways of Manuel Antonio National Park, this home is perfectly positioned to enjoy the very best of Costa Rica's Central Pacific coast.

Set on a hillside above the jungle canopy, the property commands spectacular AAA ocean views that stretch across the horizon. From vibrant multi-colored sunsets over the Pacific to the quiet rustle of treetops below, every day brings a new visual masterpiece. The elevated setting provides total tranquility and privacy, yet the home remains close to fine dining, sportfishing, beaches, and entertainment. The surrounding environment is alive with Costa Rica's iconic wildlife, including scarlet macaws soaring overhead, monkeys playing in the treetops, and toucans, sloths, and exotic birds making frequent appearances which allows residents to experience nature's magic from the comfort of home.

4

BEDS

6

BATHS

700

SQ M

Inside, the home is designed with spacious luxury in mind. All four oversized bedrooms are well-appointed and offer ensuite bathrooms for ultimate comfort and privacy. The principal suite, located on the second floor, features commanding ocean views that transform the waking hours into an unforgettable experience. One of the guest bedrooms offers private exterior access, making it ideal for visiting friends, family, or extended stays.

The expansive open-concept kitchen and living area creates a seamless atmosphere for gathering and entertaining. High-end appliances, premium finishes, and sumptuous seating define a space that is as functional as it is stylish, with large doors opening to the outdoor living spaces.

Outside, the infinity-edge pool appears to blend into the Pacific, creating a dramatic setting for relaxation. A generous covered terrace features a large dining table and premium Napoleon grill, absolutely perfect for alfresco meals while listening to the sounds of the jungle or enjoying a gorgeous sunset. A half bath and outdoor shower add convenience to the pool area.

Luxurious, private, and immersed in nature, this remarkable La Reserva residence offers a rare opportunity to live among world-class scenery with unparalleled ocean views in one of Costa Rica's most desirable coastal communities.

