August 5, 2025 - Shelton, CT: William Raveis, the number one family-owned independent real estate company in the Northeast, Florida, and South Carolina, is named Top Luxury Brokerage by Inman Golden I Club 2025. This year's national Finalists include The Agency, Amherst Madison, Brown Harris Stevens, Christie's International Real Estate (acquired by Compass), Corcoran Group, Engel & Völkers, Sotheby's International Realty, and William Raveis. Winning this prestigious industry award underscores William Raveis' commitment to luxury service excellence for over fifty years. The Inman Golden I Club is the "highest honor in luxury real estate" according to Inman news source.

William Raveis is renowned for pushing the boundaries of what's possible in the real estate industry. William (Bill) Raveis, Founder and CEO, explains their unique business model, "As a privately held company, we are not beholden to shareholders. We are not afraid to innovate and invest in building an exceptional Luxury Properties Division with the best marketing, most advanced technology tools, and finest agents in the world."

Fifty years of luxury leadership. Winning global and national awards like Top 100 Luxury Real Estate Brokers of the World (2022-2024), HGTV's Ultimate House Hunt Overall Winner (2022), and Inman Innovators' Top Brokerage (2023) is one facet. William Raveis has increasingly tapped into a unique 'luxury seam' along the East Coast, with over 4,500 sales associates to help clients buy, sell, and rent vacation homes. Bill Raveis adds, "Early on, we decided the franchises are not like us. We've honed a world-class Luxury Properties Division, providing individually tailored marketing programs for Fortune 500 CEOs, politicians, authors, and notable figures from the worlds of sports, entertainment, and television."

Raveis adds, "We've built a global brand together with our extraordinary team of entrepreneurial agents." Jamie Zdru, Executive Director of the William Raveis Luxury Properties Division, offers personalized concierge service to agents and their clients, from Maine to South Carolina and Florida. With $1B under portfolio, their team collaborates with Luxury Portfolio International® to represent the most notable estates in top destinations like Nantucket, Boston, Greenwich, Westchester County, The Hamptons, Hilton Head, Naples, Port Royal, Palm Beach, and elsewhere.

Additionally, William Raveis' Elite Concierge Services – with everything all under one roof for home, mortgage, insurance, utilities, and moving earns Finalist distinction for "Most Innovative Marketing or Branding Campaign" by Inman Innovators in 2025.
