IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SELLER AND BUYER

Florida law requires sellers of residential real estate to disclose to a buyer all known facts that materially affect the value or desirability of the property being sold that are not readily observable by, or known to, the buyer. This Disclosure Statement is designed to assist the seller in complying with those disclosure requirements and to assist Buyer in evaluating the Unit. The listing broker and buyer's broker and their respective representatives (collectively, “Brokers”) will also rely upon this information when they evaluate, market, and present the Unit to prospective buyers.

This is a disclosure of Seller's knowledge of the conditions below as of the date signed by Seller and is not a substitute for any inspections or warranties that a buyer may wish to obtain. Buyer agrees that the information contained below is not a warranty or representation of any kind by the Brokers (none of whom have made any independent verification of the information contained herein) and Buyer agrees not to rely on it as such. 2. THE ASSOCIATION

Notice to Buyer and Seller

Florida law requires the seller of a condominium unit (who is not a developer) to provide, at seller's expense, a current copy of the declaration of condominium, Association articles of incorporation, bylaws and rules, annual financial statement and annual budget of the Association, and the “Frequently Asked Questions and Answers” document, and the governance form required by Chapter 718, Florida Statutes (“Condo Docs”). In addition, Association meeting notices, agendas, and minutes (“Meeting Information”) may include important information such as the Association's financial condition, current and anticipated monthly fees, assessments, and capital contributions; rules, regulations, and penalties; and restrictions relating to issues such as pets, resales, rentals, modification of units, and parking. Florida law also contains a comprehensive set of statutory legal requirements applicable to condominium and cooperative buildings (including parking levels) that are 3 stories or more in height (a “Building”) and 30 years of age (or 25 years if determined by local laws or regulations) that requires, among other things, (a) one or more structural inspections of the Building known as a “Milestone Inspection”, and (b) a “Structural Integrity Reserve Study (“SIR Study”),” which is a “study of the reserve funds required for future major repairs and replacement of the condominium property”, that could lead to assessments or increased maintenance fees. The cost of the Milestone Inspection and SIR Study, increases in reserves, as well as any mandatory or voluntary work performed or to be performed, could result in special assessments and/or higher recurring maintenance fees or expenses for each unit owner. Prospective purchasers who have entered into a contract to purchase a condominium unit are entitled, at seller's expense, to copies of the completed inspector-prepared summary of the Milestone Inspection and the most recent SIR Study (or a statement that the SIR Study has not been completed). This Notice is not intended as legal advice or a complete description of any of the applicable laws. Buyer should visit condos.myfloridalicense.com for more information, consult with an attorney, and/or contact the Association.

North Longboat Key

North Longboat Key is a more quiet island experience, stretching from the Bay, through the canal front homes, to the west side of Gulf of Mexico Drive where the full white sandy beaches view the gulf. This is home to some of the finer estates on the key. Some say, this is one of today's modern treasures.

The mix of properties are more single family homes than condominiums. From tropical bungalows built as far back as the 1940's, to the grand private mansions, this area has something for everyone.

On the bay side, some homes are located on a deep water canal system that offers a very quick run out to the Gulf for a day of fishing. Obviously the older interior homes offer an affordable way to be close to the beach and boating. A few of the homes have a view of Sister Key which offers the boating crowd a place to throw the anchor out and enjoy the warm tropical waters for the day.

Mar-Vista Dockside Restaurant and Pub offers seafood dining overlooking the bay. What is especially nice is it is within walking distance for most residents. A limited number of commercial business are close by and it is just a quick trip north to Bradenton beach. There you will find a wide array of beach stores and some waterfront eateries. Head south and there is a full service shopping center at Bay Isles for all of your day-to-day needs. St Armand's Circle is just a few minutes further and offer 'formal-Florida' and casual dining along with specialty upscale boutiques.
